Guest Speakers

Tracy Allen

Ms. Allen is an international mediator, arbitrator and ADR educator. Her ADR experience spans the globe with emphasis in the areas of business, securities, employment, real estate, health care, insurance coverage, commercial, probate and tax law. As a former litigator and business tax attorney for many years, she now specializes in conflict prevention and resolution. In addition to her role as a commercial mediator and arbitrator, Ms. Allen provides extensive training services in the field of dispute resolution. She also acts as a neutral service provider in other ADR areas such as early neutral evaluation, summary jury trials and special master.

Lee Jay Berman

Lee Jay Berman is one of the leaders in the dispute resolution field. Since founding The Mediation Alliance in 1994, he has successfully mediated over 1,200 cases in his 13 years as a full-time mediator. In addition to being a Fellow with the International Academy of Mediators, he is on the National Panel of Distinguished Neutrals for the International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution (the CPR Institute), the National Roster of Neutrals for the American Arbitration Association (AAA), and the California Academy of Distinguished Neutrals. He is also an International Dispute Resolution Specialist by the United Nations Development Programme.

Eric Galton

Eric Galton is considered by many to be a pioneer and defining force in the field of Alternative Dispute Resolution. Since 1989 he has mediated over forty four hundred cases, employing a variety of mediation styles, and consistently maintains a 91% settlement rate. Mr. Galton is highly versatile; he mediates disputes ranging from a half day to two weeks in length, in cities all over Texas and elsewhere in the country, involving anywhere from two to 125 parties from a broad spectrum of ethnic, socioeconomic, political, and business backgrounds. He mediates disputes in over 17 areas of law. In addition to his wealth of practical experience, Eric Galton inspires and motivates participants through his uncompromising ethics, incisiveness, compassion, and genuine love of the mediation process. Eric was listed as a Texas Super Lawyer in 2006 and 2007 by Texas Monthly Magazine and was one of five mediators listed in the Texas Lawyer Go-to-Guide in 2007. Eric is both a fellow and Governor of the International Academy of Mediators.

Jeff Kichaven

Jeff Kichaven is an Honors Graduate of the Harvard Law School (J.D. Cum Laude, 1980), a Phi Beta Kappa Graduate of the University of California, Berkeley (A.B., Economics, 1977), and a veteran of 15 years' of business litigation experience as a partner in Los Angeles' Alschuler, Grossman & Pines. In 1995, Jeff left the Alschuler firm to begin his ADR practice. Now a full-time neutral, Jeff handles over 150 mediations per year in a wide range of civil, business and probate matters. Jeff is an internationally-recognized speaker and writer on mediation. He has addressed audiences in the United States, Canada and England for six Sections of the American Bar Association (Business Law, Dispute Resolution, Family Law, Law Practice Management, Litigation and Tort and Insurance Practice). He has also addressed the Practicing Law Institute, ALI-ABA, the State Bar of California, the Texas Association of Mediators, the North Carolina Bar Association, the California Center for Judicial Education and Research ("Judges' College"), the USC Insurance Law Institute, California Continuing Education of the Bar, the Los Angeles County and Beverly Hills Bar Associations, the national seminar series of the Negotiation Strategy Institute, and many other organizations.
